

Student Code of Conduct

South's BEST expects teams and supporters accompanying them to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner while participating in the Championship. This includes all activities associated with their participation in the event.

- Appropriate conduct of teams and supporters is the sole responsibility of school officials and other adult chaperones that have legal responsibility as supervisors.
- Students should be under the supervision of school officials or chaperones during all excursions and competition activities, including while in hotels and restaurants.
- Students who violate the conduct code at any point during South's BEST are subject to suspension from remaining competition activities.
- South's BEST reserves the right to refuse participation in future competitions, to any team whose behavior has been disruptive.

Inappropriate conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- At no time should any South's BEST participant (student or adult) be found in "No Access" zones in the Coliseum. No Access zones include those marked with signage, and the entire 2nd, 4th and 5th floors of the Coliseum, except for permitted stairwells. Violation of this rule will result in disqualification of the team with which the violator is associated.
- Property damage, vandalism, or theft.
- Appropriation of Auburn University or South's BEST memorabilia.
- Use of alcohol or illegal drugs.
- Use of water pistols, water balloons, or other creative missiles.
- Fighting, loud/foul language, or other disruptive/rude behavior.
- Disruptive and excessive noise during activities other than the actual competition.
- Inappropriate dress. Students are expected to wear shirts/t-shirts and shoes.
- Distractive apparel that displays design or language of a crude nature.

Financial liability for all damages or losses incurred by actions of team members and supporters shall be the sole responsibility of the team/school.
